INDULGE YOUR SKIN

Did you know that pomegranate is great for your skin? Marie Otty, founder of natural age-defying skincare range Essential Stuff, says pomegranate is a super fruit, and is high in vitamin c and has extremely high antioxidant levels. Marie's range of anti-aging body products is a tribute to the fruit and contains 100 per cent active ingredients. Try the Citrus Burst Body Butter, $37.95. WA stockists, anti-agingproducts.com.au.

FEET FIRST

It's open-toe shoe season, time to make your feet look their best. Turn to Sodashi and the new Mint Soother foot treatment ($63.60/200ml). Designed to boost circulation and moisturise, it will cool tired feet and legs, and help reduce swelling and fluid retention. So, sit back with a cup of tea and take the load off your feet. Our tip? Wear socks so the moisturiser stays on for longer. Sodashi (08) 9336 6837, sodashi.com.

INSTANTLY BROWN

Baking in the sun is a trend of the past; fake tan is the healthiest way to get a natural sun-kissed look. The UK's number one self-tanning brand, Fake Bake, is the answer to a summer glow that won't leave you looking orange. Fake Bake Original Self Tan Lotion ($45.95) is easy to apply and has naturally derived tanning agents DHA and Erythulose that work with the melanin cells in your skin to develop a tan that complements your skin tone. WA stockists 1300 787 587, fakebake.net.au.

SCRUB TIME

If Oprah loves it, the new Clarisoni skincare brush must be amazing. Recently launched in Australia, it uses sonic technology and is proven to reduce oily zones, dry patches and blemishes, and can be used at home. Bella Hart owner Belinda Hart says proper cleansing is often neglected and is a vital part of daily skin care. There's no denying it, all women want softer skin. The Clarisonic skincare brush is priced from $329. Bella Hart (08) 9381 4424, bellahart.com.au.

BE BOLD

The top summer makeup looks hit the catwalk at the Wesley Quarter fashion show during the Perth Fashion Festival. It was bold colour versus natural beauty, and we loved both styles. Kat Thompson, creative team member of Napoleon Perdis, says the first look was super-girly and sexy with strong defined smokey eyes (with a hint of pink to warm through the eye-socket) and glossy red/pink lips. Look two was feminine and fresh with glowing skin, a strong brow and defined eyes. You make the call. Napoleon Perdis is stocked at more than 650 pharmacies throughout Australia, for WA stockists 1800 814 572, napoleonperdis.com.

PERTH FASHION FESTIVAL HAIR TREND

The new sleek braid and bun, the latest looks, are easy to do. Keep hair off your face and embrace the refined style displayed at the Perth Fashion Festival. "The models wore one or two variations; a beautiful fishtail braid or a clean, polished bun. Both position to the side," describes hair director Damien Rinaldo for L'Oreal Professionnel.

GET THE LOOK

1. Prep the hair with L'Oreal Professionnel techni.art Liss Control ($25) for hold and long-lasting smoothness.
2. Create a deep side part, using the arch of the brow as a guide. Next, blow-dry in the direction you want the hair to fall.
3. Gather the lengths to one side, in line with the nape and diagonally opposite the part. Tie off. To create the bun, twist the lengths and coil into shape and pin into place.
4. To create the fishtail braid, split the ponytail into two parts. Starting with the left one take a small piece from the outside and fold it over into the right-side section. Do the same from the right side; folding over into the left (similar to a plait). Repeat down the entire length. Secure with tie.
5. For both styles, finish with L'Oreal Professional techni.art Crystal Gloss ($25) for extra shine and L'Oreal Professional Elnett Strong Hold Hair Spray ($19.95) to tame fly aways.
